

The only thing that gives any purpose to life is to move humankind along to a better world, the struggle to eliminate homelessness, hunger, disease, and most of all, to eliminate the greatest insanity, war. That is the 'good fight.'

— Milt Wolff

Commander of the Abraham Lincoln Brigade from The Front Lines of Social Change: Veterans of the Abraham Lincoln Brigade
 by Richard Bermack

Chicago Event Presentation and Book Signing

Wednesday, July 20, at 7 p.m.

Roosevelt University

430 S. Michigan Ave. Rm #528

For information: 708-488-9552

Co-sponsored by Chicago Friends of the Lincoln Brigade

and Center For New Deal Studies, Roosevelt University

THE FRONT LINES OF SOCIAL CHANGE: VETERANS OF THE ABRAHAM LINCOLN BRIGADE
 by Richard Bermack

An ode to activism, an antidote to cynicism, an inspiration for hard times published by Heyday Books (510) 549-3564 x304 • www.heydaybooks.com • www.rb68.com/frontlines

available at local bookstores